Applicant thanks the Examiner for his thoughts and comments during the telephonic interview conducted with Applicant's representative on 27 August 2008. Various amendments to claim 1 were discussed. In particular, Applicant's representative and the Examiner discussed certain element(s) which could be re-introduced to the claims to focus the claims on the scheduling arts. The Examiner agreed that amending the claims to include language directed to "scheduling an appointment in a reminder scheduler" would be sufficient to be considered a responsive response to the Office Action of 11 January 2008.

Applicant notes that on 28 August 2008, the day after the telephonic interview, Applicant filed a Response to the Notice of Non-Responsive Amendment.

Respectfully submitted,

Date: 24 September 2008
